PATTERN NOTES

The cowl is knitted flat bottom up and it will be about 2" (5 cm) smaller than the average head circumference of the size you are knitting

The cowl is in double layer, you start with the top layer

When knitting in the Pattern, after a bind off row cast on the same amount of sts on the next row over the bind off sts colors) fold the contrast color layer behind the main color and sew the cast on and bind edges together with right side facing.

THE STITCH PATTERN

Weave in all ends.

THE COWL

Start here: With main color (top layer) cast on 98/110/122 stitches (toddler/child/adult and follow the given number throughout the pattern) and work garter stitch for 4 rows.

Continue in the Pattern (see on the left) and repeat the Pattern 3/3/4 times.

Knit garter stitch for two rows, change to contrast color yarn (inner layer) and work in reverse stockinette stitch (right side purl and on wrong side knit) until the inner layer measures the same length as the top layer.

Loosely bind off all stitches. Block the piece.

Sew the two sides of the piece together leaving the cast on and bind off rows open so the cowl would look like a long tube, now from the middle (where you switched
